Vanguard of Local National League Players Leave for Training Camps---Yankees Receive Marching Orders

LEAVE FOR DIXIE

McGraw's Men Entrain for Gainesville-Dodgers Board Ship for Jacksonville.

By PREDERICK G. LIEB.

After one of the longest periods of aseball drought ever experienced by the New York fan, relief is in sight. The Glants are off for Dixle. A whole parcel of them, including the leading stars of the club, Chase, Burns, Zimmerman, Doyle and McCarty, left the Pennsylva-nia Station at 8:36 last night bound for their training camp at Gainesville, Fla. If proper connections are made at Jack-sonville, the club will reach the Florida college town to-morrow shortly after

Chase was accompanied by Mrs. Chase. Arthur Irwin, manager of the Rochester International League club, also was a member of the party. Arthur will keep in touch with the Giants during their Gainesville stay, as he expects to obtain several of McGraw's rooklea Gaines-ville will be a Mecca for International League managers, George Gibson, man-ager of the Toronto club, will be among

GIANTS AND ROBINS | HIGH LIGHTS AND SHADOWS | AUSTRALIAN TENNIS | WESTERN GOLFERS IN ALL SPHERES OF SPORT OFFICIALS ARE HERE ENTER FINAL ROUND

ANY followers of tennis in this country-we think we would be safe in saying a majority of them—are disposed to find fault with the United States National Lawn Tennis Association for what they term its lack of foresight in not challenging for the Davis cup this year They point out that England, France and Belgiam saw fit to challenge the Australasians for the trophy and that the world tennis classic would be revived next summer with pre-war enthusiasm were it not for the absence of America from the competition. However, those who know the inside conditions appreciate the wisdom of the national association in postponing its challenge until next year, and they fear that certain matters threaten America's participation even in 1920. Granted that we would have Lindley Murray, Dick Williams, Billy Johnston, Maurice McLoughlin, William T. Tilden 2d and other stars available for Davis cup play this year, are we ready in other ways for the resumption of tennis relations with England. Australasia, France and Beigium?

We are afraid not. We became more convinced than ever of that fact yesterday when we were told that Tilden had accepted a position in the tennis department of the Wanamaker store in Philadelphia, and that With the start of the erstwhile champions for their training quarters, a new Vincent Richards had either accepted or was on the verge of accepting a place under Tilden. We are confronted with the reopening of the amateur on. The championship season does not begin until April 23, but to many a Loughlin, Johnston and Johnny Strachan went into the sporting goods Giant admirer the real season gets under Tilden. We are confronted with the reopening of the amateur controversy that raged in American tennis several years ago, when Mc-begin until April 23, but to many a Loughlin, Johnston and Johnny Strachan went into the sporting goods business in California. At that time, because of the fact that England and der way when reports on the capers of der way when reports on the capers of Australasia were engaged in the war, we really postponed final and definite action until the conflict was over. Whatever changes were made in the tennis rules at that time did not settle the controversy. Everybody appreciated that it only delayed the final verdict. Now America is confronted Eleven Giants or near Giants, accompanied by a retinue of war correspondents, left in the New York party last might. The regular players were Heinle Zimmerman, Hal Chase, Larry Doyle, George Burns, Lew McCarthy and George Gmith. The youngsters were Heinle Zimmerman, Hal Chase, Larry Doyle, associations except the United States National Lawn Tennis Association are members of that body. The American association cannot become a fack Gillespie, George Terhune, Godfrey Brogan, Bill Ryan and Howard Clarcy, The last four named are pitchers.

Fight Is Renewed at an Opportune Time-

Tilden's taking a position offered him because of his having become prominent in tennis circles through his play starts the amateur rule fight anew at a very opportune time. We must settle this question as soon as possible, and now is the best time of all. Talk of going into the Davis cup competition this year is futile, for even if the national association wanted to enter it could not. March 1 is the dead line for challenging in any year. All the arguments which arose at the time of McLoughlin's defiance of the national association arise again in the case of Tilden and Richards. Either they are justified in their taking positions acquired through Atil April 3, when they jump over to Tampa, the Red Sox camp, for two games with Barrow's world's champions. The clubs will return to Gainesville to gether, where they will play games on April 7 and 8. The Giants will break camp that night and start a road series with the Red Sox, games to be played in Columbia, S. C.; Spartanburg, S. C., and Winston-Salem, N. C. On April 12 and 13 the Giants will play two games in Baltimore with Jack Dunn's International League team, and then will spend a week Jumping around Viginia.

Now that the Yankees have waived on Charley Herzog it looks very much as if the Boston Nationals will have to give the infielder his unconditional release. Once granted his freedom Herzog should not have any trouble in signing with some major league club. We believe that his acquisition by the Cincinnati club may be expected within the next few panied by five scribes, one of them deorge B. Underwood of The Sun, now are on the high seas, bound for Jacksonville. The three Dodgers who are braving the billows are Tommy Griffith, who motored to Brooklyn from Cincinnati; Ollie O'Mara and Sheridan. The Herrmann has made several attempts to land a shortstop in his own league, but has failed. He has tried to get Barbare from the Pirates and Schreiber from the Braves, but has been unable to do any business because the other clubs, unlike the Giants in the Rariden and Sallee cases, are acting the Santa Claus. Incidentally, Herrmann announces that he has offered Roush, a holdout, more money than any other outfielder in the National League is getting.

Bartfield Could Make Britton Step Some.

Bancroft of the Phillies Is on the Market.

Dave Bancroft, the Philadelphia Nationals' shortstop, is a peculiar sort of a holdout. Not only does he want more money than the Phillies want to pay him but he does not want to play any more in that city. Bancroft says that he cannot do his best there—probably he is affected by the general somnolency of that burg—and he desires to be traded. Having failed in an effort to make Bancroft "listen to reason" Jack Coombs has

"The Sun" Will Have Sporting Staff Men With Giants, Yankees and Superbas

EADERS of THE SUN are assured of the most complete and entertaining accounts of the doings of the three home baseball clubs on their Southern training trips, for members of the sporting staff will be with the Giants, Yankees and Superbas Frederick G. Lieb left yesterday with the McGraw forces and George B. Underwood sailed with the Brooklyn advance guard. To-morrow afternoon Daniel will go with the Yankees. In addition to covering the doings of Huggins's aspirants for pennant honors Daniel will make side trips to the camps of various other major league clubs in Florida and adjacent States. This arrangement calls for the most pretentious training season service yet attempted here and has been made in recognition of the fact that major league baseball is due to enjoy the biggest boom in the history of the game. Not since last Labor day have the home teams been in action, and the baseball followers of New York will be more anxious than ever to learn of the doings of their favorites in Florida and on their trip North. The assignment of Sun staff men to the training trips is a guarantee of the best service possible.
